

SING AWAY, SING AWAY
An admired Ballad,
Arranged for the
GUITAR
by
SAM<sup>l</sup> CARUSI.

Baltimore, Published by Sam. Carusi.

Sing a way, sing a way; We can not re store The hopes that are Sing a way, sing a way; by day and by night; This world is a blight ed the years that are o'er; Sing a way, sing a way the fast coming bright lit tle world of de light; There are hearts ever kind to love and to day is stea ling too quickly on hours so gay, Is stealing too sue, And if one should be false there are some that are true and if one should be Entered according to act of Congress in the year 1841 by S. Carusi in the clerk's office District Court of Md.

quickly on hours so gay, Is stealing too quickly on hours so false there are some that are true And if one should be false there are some that are gay! Sing a way, sing a way, the purest of true Sing a way sing a way there are joys on feelings Are joys that are softend by sorrows re vealings, The earth To banish re gret and give life a new birth; Now smile to past grief may sub due but its sway; Oh! does it not love and now wine, now peace and now strife; This this is the Bars
 fade In fu tu ri ty's ray; Oh! does it not fade In fu way to steal a way life; This this is the way to tu ri ty's ray! Sing a way sing a way, we can not re steal a way life Sing a way, sing a way, by day and by store The hopes that are blighted the years that are o'er Sing a 5 night This world is a bright little world of delight; There are way Sing a way the fast coming day is stealing too hearts ever kind to love and to sue, And if one should be quickly on hours so gay is stealing too quickly on false there are some that are true; And if one should be false there are hours so gay is stealing too quickly on hours so some that are true; And if one should be false there are some that are gay!

 true.

